PARISH HISTORY

Holy Trinity Parish was founded on August 17, 1966 to serve the growing Catholic population in southeast Springfield. Bishop Ignatius Strecker appointed Fr. Richard Rolwing as first pastor. Liturgical celebrations and religion classes for 325 families began immediately in the Elks Lodge, ten blocks west of the present church site, until the church building was dedicated by Bishop Strecker in 1969. The Diocese of Springfield-Cape Girardeau provided land and ground was broken on East Bennett Street on June 9, 1968 with the laying of the cornerstone on October 6th of that year. The first Mass was celebrated in the new Holy Trinity Church on May 25, 1969.

Fr. Mark Ernstmann was appointed second pastor in 1972. Under his leadership and previous experience as Diocesan Superintendent of Catholic Schools, the Parish School of Religion flourished. Fr. Thomas Allen became Holy Trinity's third pastor in 1977. Construction soon began in 1978 to include a parish gymnasium/social center and seven classrooms. Bishop Bernard Law dedicated the new facilities on May 11, 1979. Fr. Paul McLoughlin was appointed fourth pastor in 1987. Continued generosity of the parishioners enabled the mortgage of the church and building additions to be paid off years ahead of schedule.

Msgr. Thomas Reidy became our fifth pastor in 1991, precipitating a multi-phase expansion of parish facilities beginning in 1994 to meet the growing needs of the families of Holy Trinity. Fundraising began and Phase One construction got underway with the building of a new chapel, library and support facilities. The church itself was renovated receiving a new carpet, ceiling, improved accessibility, and improved heating and air conditioning systems. Four new classrooms were added to the parish hall along with much needed storage areas.

The church and parish center were connected by an enclosed walkway in 2000. The parish center was expanded to include parish offices, a multi-purpose social hall, kitchen, a remodeled meeting room and improved restroom facilities. Additional parking space was also provided. A beautiful prayer garden complemented and completed construction. Bishop John Liebrecht dedicated the renovations and new constructions on November 3, 1996 and September 9, 2001.

In 2003 the parish rectory was remodeled in order to be more functional and to accomplish necessary repairs and maintenance.

Fr. Fergus Monaghan became our sixth pastor in 2004, leading a vibrant faith community of 875 families who are active in a variety of ministries, organizations and social engagements.

In 2012 the parish replaced the heating and cooling pipes under the slab upon which the church is built. These repairs provided an opportunity to also open up the gathering area, with the addition of a 600 square foot addition for larger restroom facilities, etc. At the same time the baptismal font and tabernacle were replaced.

In August 2016, Holy Trinity proudly celebrated 50 years as a parish in the Diocese of Springfield-Cape Girardeau.

In July 2019, Fr. Patrick Ike Nwokoye became the seventh Pastor of Holy Trinity.

It is an advisory board responsible to the pastor. Members are elected to three-year terms and attend regular meetings on the second Monday of each month.

New parishioners who complete a parish registration form are invited to join members of the Welcoming Committee before or after Mass usually once a month in the gathering space.
