Garden of Feeden

In 2009, Holy Spirit started a garden on the grounds behind the Annex. This garden has grown and is a blessing to many people in many ways. The garden produces fresh herbs and vegetables for the HandS pantry for distribution to those in need.

When crops are bountiful, the vegetables are harvested and available for parishioners. A good will offering is accepted for the fresh produce. HandS can then use the proceeds when financial assistance is needed. Additional produce is distributed to St. Louis food pantries. There is a wonderful sense of community and sharing as parishioners are “playing in the dirt” together. Everyone is invited to participate in some way, no experience necessary, to help plant the vegetables, water, weed, or harvest the blessings from the land. This Garden of Feeden gives glory to God by helping those in need while at the same time “Keeping Green!”

Social Justice Ministry

Social Justice is an integral part of our faith life. To be holy we need to be just and foster justice in our society. Learn, share with others, and advocate for the voiceless. We collaborate with other parishes in the Northwest Deanery in this ministry.

St. Patrick Casserole Program

St. Patrick Center (in downtown St. Louis) provides hot meals and other services to the poor and the homeless. Holy Spirit Parish is part of an archdiocese-wide cooperative program to assist St. Patrick's. Volunteers from our parish prepare chicken and rice casseroles (according to a set recipe), and bring them to the Parish Resource Center between the hours of 6:30-9:00 a.m. the fourth Wednesday of each month. The casseroles are then delivered to St. Patrick's. We are always seeking more cooks and drivers. Cooks are needed monthly or as often as you can do so. Drivers may be asked to volunteer a few times per year.

St. Patrick Salad Program

Volunteers from our parish also provide salads and/or components the 4th Sunday of each month. Salads are collected from the 5:00 p.m. Mass on Saturday until the beginning of the 11:00 Mass on Sunday. Your donations may be placed in a container in the Parish Hall. The salads are then delivered to St. Patrick's Center.
